18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

ABOUT THE HPA

The Hollywood Professional Association (HPA) is a non-profit member association dedicated to recognizing, educating, and connecting businesses and individuals that provide creative and technical expertise, support, tools and infrastructure for professional content creation, distribution and archive in the media and entertainment industry.

Through our three pillars of activities — Community, Knowledge Exchange, and Recognition — the HPA advances the arts, science and business of the media and entertainment industry.

Visit <https://hpaonline.com/about/who-we-are/> for more details on HPA's overall mission and services.

HPA AWARDS MISSION

To promote creative artistry in the field of post-production, and recognize the achievement of talent, innovation, and engineering excellence in the larger professional media content industry. The first annual HPA Awards were held in November 2006.

HPA AWARDS ENTRY RULES

This document, also referred to as the Awards Entry Rules, describes the timetable under which the awards process will occur, defines each award category and its respective entry requirements, describes those who are eligible to receive an award, describes the specifications for submission material and describes all other rules and procedures.

SECTION A: ELIGIBILITY

1. Eligible Material
 - a. An eligible Live Action Theatrical Feature must have premiered during the Period of Eligibility for Entries and have run in a commercial theater for a paying audience for at least one week. Substantively Animated and Documentary projects are excluded and should be entered in the corresponding Animation or Documentary categories.

18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

- b. An eligible Animated Theatrical Feature must have premiered during the Period of Eligibility for Entries and have run in a commercial theater for a paying audience for at least one week. An Animated Feature is primarily comprised of one or more animation techniques, such as but not limited to computer animation, hand-drawn animation, clay animation, cutout animation, stop-motion, kaleidoscopic effects created frame-by-frame, camera multiple pass imagery, and drawing on the film frame itself. Live Action and Documentary projects are excluded and should be entered in the corresponding Live Action or Documentary categories.
 - c. An eligible Documentary Theatrical Feature, Non-Theatrical Feature or Episode (includes an episode of an Episodic Series, Pilot, Miniseries or Special) is primarily comprised of documentary or produced nonfiction content, dealing creatively with cultural, artistic, historical, social, scientific, economic, or other subjects. It may be photographed in actual occurrence, or may employ partial reenactment, stock footage or archival footage, stills, animation, stop-motion, or other techniques. Stories should be substantively told with documentary elements or produced nonfiction content.
 - d. An eligible Live Action Episode, or Episodic Season for VFX (includes an episode of an Episodic Series, Pilot, Miniseries or Special) or Non-Theatrical Feature that had no plans for theatrical distribution, must have premiered during the Period of Eligibility for Entries and must have been broadcast on a network, pay or basic cable, satellite network or online distribution platform. Documentary projects are excluded and should be entered in the Documentary categories.
 - e. An eligible Animated Episode or Non-Theatrical Feature that had no plans for theatrical distribution, must have premiered during the Period of Eligibility for Entries and must have been broadcast on a network, pay or basic cable, satellite network or online distribution platform. Animated projects are primarily comprised of one or more animation techniques, such as but not limited to computer animation, hand-drawn animation, clay animation, cutout animation, stop-motion, kaleidoscopic effects created frame-by-frame, camera multiple pass imagery, and drawing on the film frame itself. Live Action and Documentary projects are excluded and should be entered in the corresponding Live Action or Documentary categories.
 - f. An eligible Commercial must have premiered during the Period of Eligibility for Entries and aired on a network, pay or basic cable or satellite network, or have been delivered digitally as part of an online advertising campaign.
2. Only the credited creative talent (such as picture and sound editors, colorists, sound designers, sound mixers, visual effects and compositing artists, visual effects supervisors and visual effects producers each an “Entrant”) is eligible to receive an award in the specified categories.

18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

3. Special Awards Category Submissions: See Section H.
4. In the event that the eligibility of an Entrant is questionable, HPA may request additional information from the submitter. Additional administrative fees may apply if the HPA Awards Committee must request additional information or Submitter requests changes to an Awards Submission after the entry deadline date.
5. Entries not meeting the above criteria will be disqualified.

SECTION B: GENERAL SUBMISSION PROCEDURES

1. Entries may be submitted by any of the following individuals (the “Submitter”):
 - i. The Entrant;
 - ii. The Project’s Producer, VFX Supervisor or Post Production Supervisor (depending on Category);
 - iii. The Project’s Director;
 - iv. The Facility Producer, VFX Producer or the Supervisor (depending on Category) at the film studio and/or post production facility at which the work was performed.
2. The Project or work that is the subject of a submission is referred to herein as the “Work.”
3. By submitting an entry, Submitters confirm that all entry information is complete, true, and correct. The HPA has no liability for, or obligation to, correct any incorrect information such as missing information, misspelled names, ballot listings or subsequent incorrect publicity that are the result of incorrect information submitted on the entries.
4. Petition Guidelines: Potential submissions that do not conform to one or more HPA Awards requirements, for example, number of entrants, premier date or ability to submit complete entry materials by the entry deadline; may petition the HPA Award Committee for an exception to the entry rules. Requests must be made, via e-mail to awards@HPAonline.com, Attn: HPA Awards Committee, and provide a reason for the request and when possible, documentation proving the need for the request. Petitions and their accompanying submission forms MUST be received no later than the Petition for Exceptions Deadline indicated in the Schedule.
5. Each entry must be accompanied by:
 - i. A completed submission form;
 - ii. The required viewing materials, AND;
 - iii. Payment in US funds via check, credit card or ACH/EFT for the entry fee.

18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

6. Online Submission forms are available on the HPA Awards upload site at (<https://hpa.awardcore.com/login>). Submission forms must be completed online to receive a submission number and begin the judging process.
 - i. Signatures for individuals named on the entry form are not required as part of the initial submission process. Entries that move forward to the nomination round, will be asked to provide approval signatures at the time of nomination.
7. By submitting the entry form an Entrant(s) or Submitter states that they have read the HPA Awards Entry Rules and have submitted an entry in accordance with all stated policies.
8. If the Submission receives a nomination, the submitter will be responsible for obtaining approval in accordance with the following:
 - i. The Project's Producer, Supervisor or other production representative confirming the Entrant(s) eligibility (Exception for Editing – Theatrical Feature and Editing – Episode or Non-Theatrical Feature categories)
 - ii. If the work was done at a facility or by an artist(s) while employed at or engaged by a facility, an authorized representative of the facility acknowledging entry submission (Exception for Editing – Theatrical Feature and Editing – Episode or Non-Theatrical Feature categories)
 - iii. The Project's Supervising Sound Editor, or other most senior member of the sound team for Outstanding Sound categories.
 - iv. The Project's the most senior member of the visual effects team for Outstanding Visual Effects Categories.
9. In the event that any individual who is a "required signature" is not available to sign the submission form before the nominations are officially announced in October, 2023, this individual must do the following to validate the entry form:
 - i. E-mail awards@HPAonline.com, Attn: Awards Committee that they agree with the entry submission and indicate which signature they are providing via e-mail.
 - ii. Alternatively, the entry's submitter may e-mail a scanned copy of an approval e-mail to the HPA office at awards@HPAonline.com.
10. Only one (1) submission per entry form is permitted. Entry forms containing multiple submissions will not be accepted.
11. Entries must be submitted by 5:00 p.m. PDT on the last day of the Submission Period indicated in the Schedule.
12. DO NOT COMBINE MULTIPLE ENTRIES ON A SINGLE DCP or Pro Res 422 HQ file. No such entries will be accepted, and each entry will have to be re-submitted on a separate DCP or Pro Res 422 HQ file by the end of the Submission Period, as specified in the schedule.
13. Entries that have been edited or otherwise altered from their original release or broadcast form will be disqualified.

18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

14. Audio on a submission must be the sound from the original release or broadcast and may not be altered.
15. Only the approved HPA Awards slate, will be accepted at the head of the viewing materials. After submitting an entry form at (<https://hpa.awardcore.com>) a personalized slate will be downloadable.
16. Total Run Time (TRT): For all creative category entries except the Visual Effects categories the TRT should include the length of the content only.

18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

19. Outstanding Achievement in Restoration: This award recognizes the efforts taken to re-release a creative work that seeks to enhance, restore, repair and re-present in a way consistent with the original creative intent through the use of tools, techniques in image, sound and other restorative methods, creates an outstanding new representation and honor the achievement in the Preservation/Restoration of a Motion Picture, Documentary, TV Program, or Series.

The HPA Awards recognizes that restoration is a collaborative process, and that many facilities and artisans can contribute to a restoration effort. We seek to recognize and honor the contributions of these organizations and artisans to the overall project. A submission can be generated from any of the studios, facilities, or team members on the project but only one submission for a project will be considered.

Eligibility: One (1) trophy will be issued to the winning project, crediting the project and rights holder of the project.

In the event of a win, certificates of recognition can be issued to up to four (4) team leaders or key contributors to the project. These key contributors can include but are not limited to: Team Lead Restoration, Lead Archivist, Team Lead Picture Restoration and Team Lead Sound Restoration. Due to the varying complexity of this work, the project rights holder will be responsible for selecting those to be credited.

Important note regarding the period of eligibility: The Restoration category launched during the 2022 Awards cycle as a juried (non-submittable award). In consideration of this Award’s status change, entries that were publicly released during the 2022 period of eligibility will be eligible for Awards consideration during the 2023 call for entries.

Entries that were publicly released between September 8, 2021 – September 4, 2023 may be submitted.

SECTION E: ENTRY FEES

1. The total fee for each entry, regardless of how many individuals are being named:
 - a. Entries will be $215 for HPA members and $275 for non-members
 - b. HPA Corporate member companies may submit all entries from that company under the membership rate. Individual members may use the member rate for entries where that individual is the entrant.

SECTION F: NOMINATIONS & JUDGING

1. Judging panels with a minimum of seven (7) participants per panel will select the nominees in each category. A judge must be a full-time production or post-production professional with expertise in the category that they are judging. Voting will take place by secret ballot.
2. "Conflict of Interest" refers to the situation in which a judging panelist would be judging an entry in a category in which the judging panelist is also (i) an Entrant, (ii) a Submitter, or (iii) a current officer, director, or employee of the same corporate entity where an Entrant or a Submitter is a current officer, director or employee.
3. If a "Conflict of Interest" exists, the judging panelist must (i) mark that entry with the word "abstain" on their ballot and refrain from influencing the vote of other judging panelists.

18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

4. Where possible and appropriate, the HPA Awards Committee will strive to nominate up to five (5) entries per category. There may be fewer than five (5) nominations or none at all if deemed appropriate. A category may have more than five (5) nominations only if there is a tie for one (1) of the nominations.
5. Scoring is on a scale of 1-10; the highest average scores will determine the nominations and winners.

SECTION G: CLEARANCES & OWNERSHIP

1. By entering the Work in the HPA Awards competition, the Submitter warrants that he/she has the right to submit the Work, and HPA will consider the work cleared for only the following uses:
 - a. Screening by the HPA staff and HPA Awards committee for the purposes of vetting a submission
 - b. Screening by the judging panels and associated personnel for the purpose of evaluating and processing the work
 - c. Screening during the virtual HPA Awards Ceremony for HPA members and guests
2. For finalists in the Outstanding Editing – Theatrical Feature category, HPA will request that a high-resolution clip of the Work be obtained for use at the non-broadcast HPA Awards Ceremony.
3. The physical copies of all material provided by Submitter to the HPA shall be held by the HPA free and clear of any liens or encumbrances.
4. The 2023 HPA Awards are being presented in-person in November, 2023. By entering, submitter authorizes the use of clips during the in-person event. In the event of any other prospective uses of the clips, the HPA will obtain the required rights and permissions from the copyright owner and/or distributor of the material.

SECTION H: HPA SPECIAL AWARDS

Different from all other categories in the HPA Awards, the following awards are not up for submission or judging. Rather, these awards may be bestowed on an individual, a company, or an organization. The HPA Board of Directors and HPA Awards Committee will select the candidates and recipient(s), if any. These are discretionary honors.

18th Annual HPA Awards Entry Rules

1. Charles S. Swartz Award

The Charles S. Swartz Award recognizes broad, impactful, or lasting contributions that have advanced and/or provided some unique purpose to the larger media content ecosystem. The Award may be conferred on a person, group, or company that has made a significant artistic, technological, business, or educational impact across diverse aspects of the media industry.

2. Lifetime Achievement Award

The Lifetime Achievement Award may be awarded by the Hollywood Professional Association to an individual who, during his or her lifetime, is recognized for their service and commitment to the professional media content industry. The mission of this award is to give deserving and respectful recognition to specific individuals who have, with great service, dedicated their careers to the betterment of our industry.

3. Judges Award for Creativity and Innovation

The HPA Judges Award for Creativity and Innovation Award was conceived to recognize companies and individuals who have demonstrated excellence, whether in the development of workflow and process to support creative storytelling or in technical innovation. The Judges Award is chosen by a jury of experts and peers.

SECTION I: HPA AWARDS WINNERS

1. All Award winners will be announced at the HPA Awards Event on the day specified in the Schedule. Each HPA Award will be presented to the individual or individuals specifically listed as an entrant in the submission form.
2. All winner information, including spelling of the winners' names, is the responsibility of the Submitter and will be taken directly off the submission.

SECTION J: THE PHYSICAL HPA AWARD

1. The HPA owns and reserves all rights to each physical HPA Award (including the intellectual property rights, design and any trademarks or patents thereon).
2. The HPA grants each recipient of a physical HPA Award and his/her heirs a limited license to possess and display the physical HPA Award for personal use only. Any other use is not permitted without the prior written consent of the HPA.
3. Additional awards can be purchased for individuals or companies listed as official entrants on a winning entry. Further information is available by contacting awards@HPAonline.com.
